

The Task Force is charged to:

- Develop an achievable vision that grows directly out of the congregation's mission statement
- Deeply involve the congregation in formulating and approving such vision
- Create a five-year strategic plan with specific steps and timelines which, when followed, will lead to the realization of the vision

The Task Force is encouraged to draw support and counsel from the congregation and the UUA in both visioning and developing the plan. Task Force

Time frames are as follows:
